Tucson Wildcats Youth Football & Spirit Association

Have you ever been convicted of or plead guilty to a crime involving child abuse or molestation, sexual assault of a minor or adult, possession or use of illegal drugs, contributing to the delinquency of a minor, domestic violence or DUI? Yes No

If yes, please provide the details. _____

Managing and coaching requires a lot of time and dedication, we practice Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays, have games on Saturdays and require fundraising and help with sign ups, recruiting, equipment distribution and collection, snack bar and field set up and breakdown, and your attendance at clinics and board meetings just to name some of your responsibilities. Describe how you plan to help the association and how we will improve based on your participation? _____

I have read (or agree to read) both the TYFSF (Tucson Youth Football & Spirit Federation) Rule Book and Administration Manual and the Wildcat Association Handbook (which includes the Wildcat Bylaws, Spirit Constitution and necessary forms) and abide by all Federation and Association rules, regulations and guidelines whether I agree with them or not. Initial _____

As a condition of volunteering, I give permission for the TYFSF and the Wildcat Association to conduct a background check, which will include fingerprinting, and a review of sex offender registries, child abuse and domestic violence records and general criminal history records. Furthermore, I hereby release and hold harmless TYFSF and the Wildcat Association, their officers, employees and volunteers or any other person or organization that may provide or release information about me. Initial _____

In addition, I understand that TYFSF and the Wildcat Association are not obligated to appoint me to any position in any capacity; regardless of prior appointments and that I am subject to suspension/removal by the Board of Directors of either governing body for violations of TYFSF or Association Rules, Regulations or Policies. Initial _____

At this time, having completed and reviewed this application, I would like to be considered for the _____ position.
